

The Last Survivor

Rafalis M. Alzabos A.

Once upon a time there were three friends, who were traveling on their yacht. During the trip, somehow the ship crashed on a giant rock and suddenly, a few moments later it started sinking. Then all the passengers jumped into the water in an attempt to survive the wreck...

When they woke up, they found themselves on a strange island in the middle of nowhere. One of them asked if anyone knew where they were, but the answer they gave was full of bitterness. Josh, the smartest of the three, in order to avoid a fight, suggested exploring the island. A suggestion with which the other two instantly agreed.

While they were exploring the tropic island they heard a strange noise coming from behind some big rocks. Then Mike, the youngest, started talking:

Mike: Let's get closer, there might be some rabbits or something we can eat over there...

But John, who was too frightened to get closer tried to avoid going there, but since the rest wanted to see what was there, he agreed. So very carefully, they stepped closer only to see a pack of lions eating their prays.

Panicked, they left as fast as they could and went to the beach to make some weapons in order to protect themselves from the wild animals. After that they went back to the place where the lions were and started a big fight with them. Unfortunately, during the fight with them, John's life was taken by the leader of the pack. Those who survived were very sad and they buried him into the sand.

At night they went to collect some wood to light a fire. On the way back, they saw something that at first they thought it was an animal, but when they took a better look at them they realized that they were cannibals. Fortunately, the cannibals didn't see them, so they were able to go back to the beach.

When they got back, they used some of the wood to make sticks so as to be ready to fight the cannibals, if they attacked them. They also made a trap, so when the cannibals approached them, they fell into a big cage. After some hours and while two of them were getting hungry and exhausted, something unexpected happened. Someone came out of the darkness. At first they thought it was another cannibal, but when they got closer they saw a man who told them that he had been there for fifteen years. The problem was that some more cannibals were following the man. They attacked him, surrounded him and they ate him alive.

The next morning the two friends woke up and they saw a pirate ship. The pirates took their swords and they were ready to fight against the two friends. There was a big fight , but when they were in the middle of their fight a spaceship showed up and the pirates together with Mike and Josh teamed up to deal with the aliens that looked like grasshoppers .

All of them together fought against the aliens with everything they had. Most of the pirates died during that fight. After killing the aliens, the two friends decided to kill the pirates. At night, they set the pirate camp on fire but surprisingly some of the pirates managed to survive. Then the friends tried to escape from the flames and headed to the pirates' ship, but the aliens had already set a bomb on it, which exploded a few seconds later.

Thankfully, both Mike and Josh were safe. They decided to make a ship out of the trees on which they would leave that place. They were sailing in the sea near some weird caves, when they entered a territory called " The Triangle Of Devil ". Suddenly, an old ship, which looked like it was taken from a movie about the nineteenth century, appeared and it was full with ghosts of old pirates. These unusual creatures tried to kill them, but fortunately somehow they managed to escape .Then they tried to leave this weird and dangerous place but at the last minute the pirates caught them. The following day and after lots of efforts they finally escaped without being seen by the pirates.

On the third day the two friends woke up on a deserted island without remembering how they got there. There was an active volcano on this island. Also there was a monster, a huge medusa, that if anyone looked in her eyes he would turn into stone. When the friends got in a cave they saw animals turning into rocks.

Deep in the cave, they saw the medusa with snakes on its head. The medusa chased them but they tricked it, they pushed it into the lava and it died, but before that it beat Josh's foot and it turned into a rock. The two friends tried to find an antidote for his foot before his whole body turned into a rock.

While they were searching for the antidote, they saw humans with the head of piranhas. Luckily these strange creatures did not see them, so they managed to escape. At that moment a tornado took them away. Half an hour later, they reappeared in a deserted city with damaged buildings. Suddenly some zombies appeared out of nowhere and started chasing them, so the only thing they could do was to start running.

Fortunately, they saw a wooden house and they went to hide inside it. While they were hiding, the zombies broke the windows and got in. Mike and Josh managed to leave the house and they started running again. The two friends jumped over a wall and they finally escaped from zombies completely. They found themselves in a thick forest.

When the dark came, they got lost in the forest and they saw a homeless man who lived in the forest .He told them that if they pass by a dried steam, they will find a piece of paper which says where the antidote for Josh's foot was. The homeless man was about to tell them about the dangers they would encounter but they had already gone.

While they were searching for the stream, a faceless man was following them. Suddenly they saw two torches hanging from a tree. They took them and they started looking for the piece of paper. Unexpectedly the strange man who was following them, appeared in front of them. The friends started running to get away from him. After an hour of running they found the paper they were looking for, hanging on a tree and when they reached it they found themselves on a field. In front of them there was an army of ninjas and samourais. Two costumes were lying next to them and when they put them on they acquired super powers. They attacked their enemies with laser guns and freezing rays.

Finally they found the antidote for Josh's foot. In order to be created it required the ninjas' king blood and some kinds of flowers. They cut his foot and they used the blood that came out to create the antidote and when they made it, Josh drunk it. After a while he was fine. The next morning Mike went to find some food. He came back in the afternoon and he saw Josh like a demon because the blood had poisoned his whole body. He had now the powers of the ninja king, his voice had become stricter and his eyes had turned into black. Then he started to hit Mike but he could not take it any longer. So he put on his battle suit to try to cure Josh and become his old self. Mike tried to remind Josh of the good times they had spent together, but he could not remember anything. The second alternative he had was to kill him. They had been fighting for almost twelve hours before Josh got tired and Mike found the opportunity to kill him by cutting his head of. Mike was devastated... He could not stop mourning for his friend's loss, but he knew that it was the only choice he had, because this creature was not his friend.

One year later Mike finally managed to go back to civilization. Two tourists found him and brought him back. Time has gone by and now Mike has a wife and a son. His wife's name is Sara and his son's name is Anastasis.

Years went by and when Anastasis got home from school one day he went to his closet to look for something. When he opened it he shouted:

“ Dad, there is evil in my closet !!! EVIIIIILL !!! ”.

Mike rushed there and he saw Josh's ghost. And then he said:

“ My friend , I have missed you so much ! ”.

Josh: “ I missed you too ! I'd like to stay but I can't. I'm a ghost now and I can't live among humans. But my friend we will meet again one day. ”.

After that Josh left and Mike continued his life happily ever after...

THE END